Saul was a devout Jew who was very proud of his Jewish heritage. His passion for his religion made him blind towards the teachings of Jesus Christ. He was determined to wipe out Christianity from the face of the earth. So he obtained permission from the High Priest to visit Damascus and take the Christians from there as prisoners to Jerusalem.

MAR THOMA DIOCESAN SUNDAY SCHOOLS
DIOCESE OF NORTH AMERICA AND EUROPE

2021 Diocesan Exam: Grade 9

As he was approaching Damascus a bright light from heaven flashed around him and he was blinded. He also heard a voice speaking to him, “Saul, Saul why do you persecute me?” When he realized that it was Jesus whom he was persecuting, his life was changed forever. Saul was blind for three days after which God arranged His servant Ananias to help Saul regain his sight and prepare Saul for His ministry.

Saul who had set out to destroy early Christians became a great advocate for Christianity. Saul’s radical transformation changed the history of the Christian church. He became the greatest missionary of all time. God used Saul’s talents, religious knowledge, the prestige and power he gained through Roman citizenship, and his secular knowledge to gain more people to His kingdom.

2. How did God use Joshua to win the battle of Jericho? What was their battle strategy? Whose lives did they spare and why? (L10, p 42-44)

The Lord told Joshua that he had handed Jericho over to the Israelites along with its king and soldiers. God instructed the Israelites to march around the walls of Jericho. They circled the city as a procession. The order of the procession was as follows: soldiers, priests, the ark, and then more soldiers. The ark represented the presence of the Lord. The blowing of the trumpets in Israel reminded the people of God’s activity for them. The warriors and the priests were to remain silent as they circled around the city each day except on the seventh day. God evidently used this strategy to impress on the people of Jericho as well as on the Israelites, that the deliverance was not by human might or power, but by the spirit of God. God commanded the final shout on the seventh day to announce the destruction of the wall. It was the shout of joy and victory for the Israelites. The uniqueness of this approach impressed upon the Israelites their reliance on God for the victory. It involved incredible faith and obedience.

The Israelites were then to burn the cities and kill the inhabitants including the cattle. The only objects they were to spare were metal, gold, silver and vessels from bronze and iron. These were to be placed in the treasury of the tabernacle. But Rahab the prostitute, with all who belonged to her, were spared by Joshua because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
